

Congregation N'vay Shalom

Rabbi Stephen M. Robbins and Cantor Eva Robbins

Shalom:

I hope you are having a wonderful summer. The High Holidays begin the evening of Wednesday September 28. As you know our synagogue is warm, spiritual and mystically based. We are part of the growing movement towards a 'transdenominational' approach and away from a single ideology. We are committed to the 'renewal' of the spiritual in all facets of our lives. We all need to connect to that part of ourselves that feeds us and makes it possible to connect more fully to those we love and with the unification of the Holy One. Understanding the wonders and mystery of life is focusing on the spiritual in Jewish life. We infuse our Shabbat and Holiday celebrations with deep sense of joy, reverence and contemplation. Our cantor, Eva Robbins, draws on ancient, traditional melody modes as well as beautiful, contemporary songs that make it possible for all of us to access the richness in Jewish prayer and helps us to sing our souls. Together, we are committed to a truly moving and uplifting experience. Our services will be Temple Akiba, 5249 S. Sepulveda Blvd. Please join us! Return this form with your check or credit card information. Also, remember that you are welcome to join us for Slichot, Saturday evening, September 24, 9:00 p.m. for a late night penitential service in preparation for the Days of Awe. Through meditation and song we will reach deeply within, look at the past year, with all its failings and successes and begin the process of making T'shuvah with G-d, with others and our own souls.

We want to let you know that this year we will offer celebratory, meditative and dynamic Shabbat services. Check our calendar at www.NvayShalom.com, for date, time and location. In these trying times communal gatherings offer support and solace.

This year we want to offer everyone an opportunity to know more about our community at N'vay Shalom. If you purchase at ticket for the High Holy Days you may join the synagogue for 1/2 the price. You can enjoy services, holiday celebrations and Torah study, special Shabbatons and know that the clergy are available to you for life-cycle events. All members may attend MEDITATION workshops for free!! Go to www.Nvayshalom.com to access our newsletter and see our calendar of events. If you have any questions about our services or synagogue, please feel free to call 323-463-7728. We welcome you to be part of this special and unique Jewish 'oasis' in the midst of the desert. Also check our www.JLTV.TV for our new show "In the Moment." It is an opportunity to learn more about Jewish life through the eyes of accomplished Jewish professional as well as looking at the heart of Jewish spiritual experience.

Eva and I want to wish you a healthy and prosperous New Year.

Rabbi Steve
